Thursday 5th March 2020

Once again the children and staff have wowed us with their costumes for World Book Day. We have lots of homemade costumes (hurrah!) and everyone has made a great effort which is, as always, a joy to see.

The staff (with the exception of EYFS as they were going to a fire station for the day) all came as characters from 'The Day the Crayon Quit'. We started the day altogether, with a retelling of the story by our very own crayons in school. Throughout the day, the children have been completing book themed activities and I also heard rumours that, like the crayons, other equipment round the school had gone on strike and vanished - I am hoping the children will manage to get them back through some very persuasive letter writing!

Thank you to the parents that have volunteered to come in and read a story to classes - it has been lovely and I know the children have enjoyed it. The staff have also spent time with lots of different classes this week, reading them different stories that they enjoy. I know the children have loved this and the adults have too!

Next week our Year 6 children go off to Sayers Croft for their residential. This an experience that helps them build resilience, team work and work on their growth mindset. They will have a wonderful time and I will share more next week fingers crossed the weather improves!

KS1 Trip to the Environmental Centre

Rowan and Maple Class visited the Byng Road Environmental Centre last week (Birch will be visiting on 11th March) to continue their plants and animals work for Science.

After a fascinating talk, the children went worm hunting - looking for camouflaged (and not so camouflaged) worms. They also looked for bugs to study them further. For Maple it was like walking in a winter wonderland as snow descended.

Thank you to the Environmental Centre staff for being so welcoming.

Perform Workshop - KS1

KS1 enjoyed another series of Perform Workshops. This time they zoomed off 'down under' as part of Australia day.

Thank you to Perform for another enjoyable set of drama activities.
