Thursday 23rd January 2020

Even though the weather is getting colder outside and there was talk of Blue Monday this week, the children have had another great week. Throughout the school, there is always lots going on and it is fantastic to walk around and see how positive the children are towards their learning. It has been over a year now where we have been working on resilience and growth mindset with the children (the belief that our brains are a muscle and, like every other muscle in our body, when we exercise it, our brain can grow. We exercise our brain by challenging ourselves in our daily life, not giving up when we find something difficult, but persevering.

Sometimes when something new like this is introduced, it can become a word or phrase that is talked about with very little meaning attached to it. This could not have been more opposite at Foulds. All of the staff have really worked hard to embed this work so that it really has become a norm within the school. You can really see the impact of this work in the children's everyday behaviour for learning and their progress. Children throughout the year groups, stick to something, not giving up at the first hurdle. They are choosing trickier challenges for themselves than they might have in the past and relishing working on something tougher! This work has also married up with our values very well; our children are able to show their use of the Foulds values (resilience, respect, teamwork, self-belief, kindness and responsibility) in much of what they do, whether in the classrooms, in the playground or representing the school in some way.

I would like to wish those celebrating a very happy Chinese New Year.

Yr 3/4 Poetry

WINTER by Olivia

Winter is the time to get cosy with your family
In the garden, you can only see white
Never has it been this cold
The snowmen have been built
Everyone has got frost bite
Rosy, red robins cuddle up in their icy nests ready to sleep.

WINTER by Lorenzo

Winter's here
It is freezing cold
The snow has come and taken hold
Boiling hot chocolate comes to your door
You drink as you have never done before!

WINTER DAY by Zoya

Snow dribbling on the winter wall
The tree's collassally filled with freezing ice
People slipping past the street
CRUNCH, CRUNCH,
CRUNCH
The snowmelts
The gazing horizon makes it way
NIGHT, NIGHT, NIGHT
HO, HO, HO

WHAT IS? by Eleni

What is fluffy?
My little puppy
What is small?
My sister's doll
What is shiny?
My room's stars
What rhymes?
My poem's lines!

THIS IS THE NORTHERN LINE
by Jess

The people on the tube are quite unique
Especially the way some of them speak
Some are annoyingly loud
Whilst others stand out for being proud
THIS IS THE NORTHERN LINE
The people on the tube are easily amused
They read papers, books or gaze at their shoes
Then there are; phones, phones, phones
With crazy ring tones
THIS IS THE NORTHERN LINE
The people on the tube can make mistakes
Like spilling a huge, yummy milkshake
Ooops ... missed my stop
I guess I won't be going to the sweetie
shop
THIS IS THE NORTHERN LINE

WHO AM I? by Ryaan

I am a mouse
I have a magical house
I am on a cartoon
That's not on the moon!
My dog's name is Pluto
He can't do judo
I wear red pants
And white gloves on my hands
My girlfriend is Minny
And were both quite skinny

Finally, I have yellow shoes
And that's all the clues
So have a guess
There's nothing to lose

Winter is Here by Henry

Down the hill we sledge,
Watch out for the prickly hedge!
I love playing in the snow,
Trudging so slow.

Snowballs flying through the air,
I'm wrapped up warm like a bear.
Roasting marshmallows near the fire,
Listening to the Christmas choir.

My Best Friend by Harun

Black and white
Thick and furry
Fast as the wind
Always in a hurry
Always comes when his name he hears.
Loves his ball it's his favourite thing
What's most fun for him? Everything!
Has a crate, his very own space.
Big brown eyes like moon pies.
He is my friend to the end!

Beans. Hot Beans by Bea

Beans, Hot Beans
I smell them everyday.

Beans, Hot Beans
I hope they're on their way.

I can feel the steam,
I know they'll taste great.

Hurry up now,
And get on my plate!

FOULDS SPORTS NEWS

Yr 6 Powerleague

Foulds entered two teams into the annual Yr6 Powerleague tournament.

The Foulds Falcons met Manorside in their first game but lost narrowly 1-0. Next they took on St Catherine's and played some great football. Despite having the upper hand, they couldn't find a goal and it ended 0-0. Next the team won 5-0 against Alma B before losing 3-1 to Moss Hall. Unfortunately the team didn't make the knockout stages so rounded things off with a close friendly vs Alma.

The Foulds Falcons saw six children making their debuts but were led admirably by two more experienced players. The rookie team found things hard going in the group - taking on Underhill, Cromer Road and All Saints' A teams. However with each game they got better in both their shape and resolve. At the end of the tournament, they took on their counterparts at Alma and won 6-3 in a great team performance. The rookie team will now get to play Alma in a full match today at OECC where a couple more children in Yr6 will make their competitive debuts.

Next up: Next week it's the girls' powerleague competition (where again Foulds will be entering two teams). Then it's the Yr5 and Yr4 competitions in March.

Foulds B vs St Catherine's & Foulds vs Christ Church

Foulds B vs St Catherine's B (Friendly)

Foulds B braved the conditions to play a full match in what would be an enthralling contest!

St Catherine's adapted to the conditions far better and raced into a 3-0 lead as Foulds were sluggish and did not mark adequately. After a defensive shift, the team played better, holding their opponents but were undone by a 4th close to half time when they backed off and allowed a shot.

Discussions were had during the break and Foulds raced out of the blocks with confidence and spirit - taking the game to their opponent! Foulds, a team transformed, pulled four goals back to make it 4-4. With a minute to go, St Catherine's scored to make it 5-4 but the team responded valiantly to make it 5-5 when the final whistle blew.

As it was such an epic game - we are looking to have a rematch at St Catherine's soon.

Foulds vs Christ Church (Friendly)

Upon close inspection of the pitch, it was decided not to play the League game as scheduled. Instead the teams made the best of the situation and played out a (shorter) sparring match instead.

Foulds started the brighter - playing with confidence and attacking incisively. The team raced into a 2-0 lead before Christ Church pulled one back to make it 2-1 to Foulds at the final whistle. This sets up an intriguing contest for when the teams play in the league game - rearranged for Tuesday 11th February.

Foulds' First Netball Tournament

Yesterday, the netball club went to Copthall School for our first ever netball tournament competing in London Youth Games. It was quite challenging, we played against year 5/6 pupils and the courts had full height nets!

We came 4th in our group and really enjoyed our day.
We played against Martin, Akiva, Brunswick Park, Danegrove and Monkfrith primary schools.

Well done to our netballers!!
